C. DEBTOR'S DECLARATION CONCERNING SINGLE ASSET REAL ESTATE

The Debtor must file a declaration whether the Debtor has any legal or equitable interest in "single asset real estate," as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(51B), by the date set forth above.

A party in interest may contest the Debtor's claim that it does or does not own single asset real estate by motion set for hearing in accordance with applicable Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Rule 9013-1. Any response, as well as any reply, must be filed and served in accordance with Local Rule 9013-1. However, any motion contesting the Debtor's declaration regarding single asset real estate must be set for hearing by the objecting party not later than 90 days after the date of the petition.

- b. Type of Plan. Whether the plan will be one of liquidation or reorganization;

3. Purpose of Preliminary Status Report. The Court expects to receive sufficient information to understand the financial problems which precipitated the filing of the petition, the Debtor’s anticipated plan of reorganization, and the types of contested matters and adversary proceedings that will likely be filed. With this information the Court may set the deadlines described below and determine if it will give preliminary approval of a disclosure statement without a hearing and give final approval of the disclosure statement at the hearing to confirm the plan. In appropriate circumstances, the Court may also permit the plan and disclosure statement to be combined into one document. Filing a preliminary status report with perfunctory conclusions and no meaningful factual detail does not comply with this Order.

4. Sanctions for Failing to Comply. Failure to comply with this Order may result in sanctions including dismissal, conversion, or the appointment of a trustee.

E. CHAPTER 11 PRELIMINARY STATUS CONFERENCE

1. Appearance Mandatory. The Debtor and Debtor's counsel are ORDERED to appear personally at the preliminary status conference.

2. Matters to be Addressed. At the preliminary status conference, the Court may enter orders and set deadlines as follows:

a. Combined Plan and Disclosure Statement. If appropriate, the Court may permit the Debtor to combine the plan and disclosure statement into one document. In such a case, the Court preliminarily approve the disclosures contained in the combined document. After preliminary approval, the combined document may be served and set for a hearing to consider final approval of the disclosures and confirmation of the plan.

b. Preliminary Approval of Disclosure Statement. If the Court does not permit the plan and disclosure statement to be combined into one document, it may permit the Debtor to obtain preliminary approval of a separate disclosure statement without a hearing. In such instances, after preliminary approval, the disclosure statement and plan may be served and set for a hearing to consider final approval of the disclosure statement and confirmation of the plan.

c. Date for Filing of the Plan and Disclosure Statement. The Court may set a deadline for the Debtor's filing of proposed disclosure statement and plan. The Court anticipates that these documents will be filed in most cases within 90 days after the preliminary status conference.

d. Date of Hearing on the Disclosure Statement. If the Court will not preliminarily approve the disclosure statement, it may set a deadline for a hearing to consider approval of the disclosure statement.

e. Date of Hearing to Confirm the Plan. A deadline may be set for confirmation of the plan and, if the Court will preliminarily approve the disclosure statement, for final approval of the disclosure statement.

f. Executory Contracts. The Court may set a deadline for the Debtor to accept or reject executory contracts and unexpired leases.

3. Telephonic Appearances. A party in interest other than the Debtor and the Debtor's counsel may appear by telephone provided that the necessary arrangements for a telephonic appearance are made prior to the status conference. Telephonic appearances are optional.

4. Motions to Dismiss, Convert, or Appoint Trustee at the Preliminary Status Conference. At the preliminary status conference or any continuation thereof, the Court may sua sponte order that the case be converted to another chapter or dismissed, or that a chapter 11 trustee be appointed.

Any party may request at the preliminary status conference, or any continuation thereof, that the case be converted to another chapter or dismissed, or that a chapter 11 trustee be appointed, provided that a motion requesting such relief is filed and served on persons or entities entitled to notice at least 10 days prior to the preliminary status conference. Opposition may be presented orally at the preliminary status conference.
